AT THE HEAD OF THE PARADE:

Meet The Grand Marshal – Andrew X. Brady

Andrew Xavier Brady is a 30-year member of A.O.H. Division 4. He has served as a member and chair of various committees, as Division Vice President and then Division President from 2012-2014. When the sitting Vice President passed away last year, he stepped in and reassumed the post of Vice President of the Division. Two of Andrew's brothers, Bob Jr. and Sean, are members of the Division along with four of his nephews, Colin, Sean Jr., R.J. and Christopher.

He is a veteran of the United States Army, having served in the the Berlin Brigade and is the Commander of American Legion Post 360 in Halesite. He is a former Suffolk County Republican Committee member and member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1469. Andrew served as the former longstanding secretary of the Goodfellows Club of Suffolk County, Inc., is a 30-plus-year member of the B.P.O. Elks Lodge 1565, and remains active in various charities across Long Island.

Born and raised in Huntington, Andrew is the son of Mary Jane and Robert P. Brady. He hails from a long line of Houlihans, Daniels, McAllisters, Burns and, of course, Bradys. Andrew is a principal of Robert P. Brady Agency, Inc., with offices in Huntington and Shelter Island. He is one of the third generation of the Brady Family operating the Brady Agency, which will be celebrating its Centennial Anniversary in 2019. Andrew is a 30-year member of the Gardiner's Bay Country Club on Shelter Island.

Andrew looks at his being named the Grand Marshal of Huntington's St. Patrick's Parade as recognition of his dedication to the Ancient Order of Hibernians and his other charitable efforts over the past several decades. He looks forward to leading the 84th edition of the parade down Main Street on March 11 with his 89-year-old father Bob Brady, Sr., and his brothers Bob, Jr., Sean and Cliff as Aides. His nephews will be close at hand.

Meet The Colleen – Nadja Marie Brown

Nadja Marie Brown is the daughter of Division 4 Hibernian member and past Division 4 officer, Stephen A. Brown, the granddaughter of long time past president of Division 4, the late Justice Harry Richard Brown. Nadja was a wee colleen when she was eight years old and is grateful to be a 2018 Colleen. Nadja has gained her Bachelors of Science in Psychology from Farmingdale State University, cum laude, as a member of both the International Honor Society and the Psychology Honor Society, where she also completed two internships at West Hollow Middle School and Commack High School. She is currently in her first year as a graduate student at Long Island University. She is pursuing her Master's degree in School Counseling and has maintained a 4.0 GPA. Nadja works in the Half Hollow Hills School District as a paraprofessional along with her first practicum placement at Norwood Avenue Elementary School. She has filled her time devoted to working with children, becoming a positive role model, and making a difference. Outside of school and work, Nadja volunteers as a Safety Patroller for the Windham Mountain Ski Patrol along with her father, uncle, brother, sister and cousins helping people in need. She is a certified first responder and is trained in CPR and in using an AED.

Meet The Colleen – Julie Watson

Julie Ana Watson is an active senior at Commack High School, and is the youngest daughter of AOH Division 4 Hibernian member, Scott Watson, and Lisa Watson. Julie has two siblings, Kaylee and Emily.

Julie is an honor student who has received several certificates of academic excellence, with big plans for her future. After receiving numerous acceptances from colleges, she has decided to attend SUNY Albany in the fall and will pursue a degree in Forensic science.

Julie is involved in numerous clubs and activities at Commack High School. She is a member of the Math Honor Society where she provides tutoring for other students. She is involved in the Girls Scholar Athlete Leadership Club, where students perform community service, raise funds for charities, and support extra curricular events in and out of school.

Julie also volunteers at Mill Neck Manor's School for the Deaf fundraising events such as the Fall Harvest Festival. Along with her sisters, Julie acquired her grandmother's passion for deaf studies and community service after taking American Sign Language in high school.

Julie is an athlete, a three year Varsity soccer player for the high school and has played soccer, basketball, volleyball, gymnastics and dance while growing up in Commack. She attended The Ohman School for Ballet, and performed in their prestigious Nutcracker Ballet at Hofstra University when she was just 8 years old.

When Julie is not giving back to her community, she loves to spend time with family and friends. She enjoys movies, singing, skiing, adventure runs, and fitness challenges.

The History of the Huntington St. Patrick's

The Ancient Order of Hibernians (AOH) Division 4 will host its 84th Annual Huntington St. Patrick's Day parade on Sunday, March 11, 2018. The parade kicks-off at 2 pm near the Huntington LIRR train station and proceeds north along New York Avenue (Rte. 110) before turning west onto Main Street (Rte. 25A) and ending at St. Patrick's Church.

This grand parade has a rich history.... It was the early 1930's when the nation was in the grips of the Great Depression. Finnegan's had just opened the day after Prohibition ended to cater to the growing population of Irish workers. Down the street, Valencia Tavern opened the same day to cater to the Italian laborers. Although times were tough, a great community tradition was started when the entire town came together to celebrate the first St. Patrick's Day Parade held on Long Island.

Eighty-four years later residents continue to celebrate the unofficial start of spring on the second Sunday of March. The Hibernians will once again march dressed in their distinctive gray morning suit tuxedos. "We take a great deal of pride in putting on the Parade," said past AOH Parade Grand Marshal Dominick Feeney, Jr., whose grandfather was the founding father of the current division. "We work hard to make sure the Saint Patrick's Day Parade is a wonderful Huntington community event." It is also a tremendous catalyst to the local Huntington economy with spectators packing the local restaurants, shops, and pubs.

The core of the Parade is of course the bagpipe bands and no parade on Long Island can match Huntington's line-up with bands from all over the Island and New Day Parade and what's new this year?

York City. This year the parade will include a combination of 20-plus pipe and marching bands, including the Parade's lead pipe band for decades, Clann Eireann Irish Pipe Band. Brooklyn based Clann Eireann is the oldest, continuous independent Pipe Band in the United States. Also from New York City, the world-class NYPD Emerald Society Band will be joined by dozens of elite Long Island Pipe Bands as well.

New Parade participants this year include, former Huntington hometown Heavyweight contender, Irishman Gerry Cooney, who will return to Town to march. The Cold Spring Harbor High School Boy's lacrosse team, fresh off their unprecedented third consecutive NYS Championships will appear too. Details on the full parade march can be found in The Long Islander which will hit the newsstands on March 8, 2018.

The brothers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are proud to have a 30-year member and former AOH president, Andrew Xavier Brady, lead the division down the streets of Huntington as the Grand Marshal. Andrew is a prominent local businessman, member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1469 and B.P.O. Elks 1565, a US Army veteran and current Commander of the American Legion Post 360 in Halesite. Come see Andrew proudly marching with his 89-year-old father, Bob Brady Sr., and enjoy a day when everyone is a wee bit Irish.

The McEnerney Family pays tribute to our father, James L. McEnerney Sr. on this St Patrick's Day. Our Dad was a member of The Ancient Order of Hibernians for many years. He served as President of the AOH Div. 4 from 1983 to 1985. He was very passionate about the Huntington St. Patrick's day parade and took great pride in it as well as the AOH.

God Bless Jimmy Mac!!

Hibernians Help Stock Food Pantries

Although the Huntington Hibernians' focus this Sunday will be on the parade and celebrating Irish culture, the organization is also keenly aware of another piece of Irish history. The history of the Irish is not one of all harmony, peace and celebration. In most cases, the daily life for the Irish, in this country and in Ireland, was one of struggle and hardship. Through the many years of the Irish famine, "Great Hunger" and their never-ending fight for freedom and human rights, the Irish became even more committed to their families, friends and improving the quality of life in their communities.

Jack Ryan, AOH Charities & Missions Chairman, stated that each year Division 4 is a leading contributor to the area's eight local parish food pantries and when the call came in asking for Thanksgiving help, the Division as usual responded. "The Division has a long history of helping our local parish food pantries. Back in the '90s, most of the work was done by a late brother, Jim Regan," Ryan said. "When Jim passed away a few years ago, the Division decided to memorialize his work by formally creating the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Div. 4, members periodically can be found outside area supermarkets soliciting donations for local food banks.

Jim Regan Memorial Food Drive, not only continuing his work but greatly expanding it."

True to the mission of Friendship,

Unity and Christian Charity, the Hibernian members enjoy working together reaching out to their neighbors to help the less fortunate.
