MEET THE GRAND MARSHAL

Hon. Edmund J. 'Ed' Smyth Leads The 2026 Parade

Huntington Supervisor and brother Hibernian Edmund J. 'Ed' Smyth is at the head of the 2026 St. Patrick's Day parade as Grand Marshal

Ed is a steadfast leader with deep roots in the Huntington community, demonstrating a strong commitment to public service and Irish-American heritage. His selection as Grand Marshal reflects both his dedication to improving the lives of Huntington residents, and his long-standing support of charitable causes and community traditions that align with the mission of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Re-elected in 2025, Ed Smyth has served as Huntington's Town Supervisor since 2022. He has worked to keep Huntington a safe, vibrant, and family-centered community. Prior to his election as Supervisor, he served as a Councilman on the Huntington Town Board, earning recognition for his balanced leadership, fiscal responsibility, and focus on improving quality of life for all residents.

Beyond his service in local government, Supervisor Smyth is also a practicing attorney and a proud veteran of the United States Marine Corps Reserve. His military service reflects the discipline, integrity, and courage he continues to bring to his role as a civic leader. Both in the courtroom and in the Supervisor's office, Ed has demonstrated a deep respect for the law, a commitment to fairness, and dedication to public service.

A lifelong Long Islander with strong Irish-American roots, Supervisor Smyth has remained closely connected to his heritage and community. He has supported numerous civic, cultural, and charitable organizations throughout Huntington, embodying the values of faith, family, and friendship that are central to the AOH. His leadership has strengthened local government and built bridges across community groups, making him a unifying figure for Huntington's diverse residents.

Ed is a devoted husband and father, deeply committed to his family and to ensuring that Huntington remains a place where families can thrive. His career, service, and character have made a lasting impact on the town. His selection as Grand Marshal honors both his achievements and the values he represents.

Ed's service to his country, his town, and his community truly make him a most deserving Grand Marshal, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Division 4, is proud to celebrate his leadership, heritage, and commitment to the people of Huntington.

Parade day is just ahead. The 92nd annual Huntington St. Patrick's Day Parade steps off at 2 p.m. on Sunday, March 8, 2026.

Supervisor Ed Smyth leads the 2026 St. Patrick's Day Parade as Grand Marshal on Sunday, March 8.

MEET THE COLLEEN

Shea Cotter Adds 'Colleen' To Her Impressive Resumé

Shea Cotter is a senior at St. Anthony's High School whose academic career has been distinguished by sustained involvement in leadership, service, and faith-based activities. Throughout her years at St. Anthony's, Shea has demonstrated a strong commitment to both scholastic excellence and community engagement. She is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the English, Math, History, and Science Honor Societies, and has participated in a wide range of student organizations, including SALT, Friar Faithful, CARE, Community Service Outreach, and the Clare Society. In addition to her membership in the Clare Society, Shea serves on the Clare Council, where she helps plan, prepare, and lead freshman retreats, encouraging younger students to grow in confidence, community, and faith.

Shea's dedication to service extends well beyond the classroom. Through Community Service Outreach and CARE, she has taken part in initiatives such as assembling food baskets and preparing gift bags for those who are ill, and participating in numerous food and clothing drives. During her sophomore year, she volunteered with the St. Patrick's After School Program, where she assisted children with homework and activities, strengthening her connection to the community in which she was educated. She has also balanced her academic and service commitments with employment, working for the past two years at the Huntington YMCA teaching children how to swim. During the summer, she operates her own business giving private swim lessons for local families.

Proud of her Irish heritage and deeply rooted in her Catholic faith, Shea values tradition, service, and community. Her family history traces back to Cork and Dublin, and she continues to honor that heritage through participation in cultural and faith-centered traditions. Looking ahead, Shea plans to pursue higher education with a focus on business, with the long-term goal of earning an MBA and building a career in marketing. She brings to these ambitions a strong work ethic, a commitment to leadership, and a record of meaningful service that reflects both her character and her dedication to making a positive impact.

Shea Cotter is the Colleen of the 2026 Huntington St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Congratulations to the 2026 Grand Marshal

ABOUT THE PARADE

St. Patrick's Parade – A Grand Huntington Tradition

Huntington Supervisor Edmund P. Smyth is the Grand Marshal of the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Huntington this weekend.

Ed, as most know him, will lead Long Island's oldest and largest St. Patrick's Day Parade in a celebration of Irish culture and heritage. This year's is the 92nd annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in Huntington.

It all started in the 1930's when the nation was in the grips of the Great Depression.

Finnegan's opened the day after Prohibition ended to cater to the growing population of Irish workers. Down the street, Valencia Tavern opened on the very same day to cater to the Italian laborers. Although times were tough, a great community tradition was started when the entire town came together to celebrate the first St. Patrick's Day Parade held anywhere on Long Island.

The parade is going stronger than ever, bringing thousands of Irish and Irish-for-a-day folks from far and wide to join local residents for on the second Sunday of March when the St. Patrick's Parade marches through Huntington village.

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Irish-American fraternal organization that presents the parade, lead the march dressed in their distinctive gray morning suit tuxedos. The group makes stops along the way to give a "Hibernian Salute" in front of businesses whose sponsorships help pay the parade's costs.

Led by Grand Marshal Ed Smyth and his Aides, the he brothers of the A.O.H. and sisters of the L.A.O.H will be not far behind with schoolchildren, scouts, fire departments and first responders, marching bands and community groups, stepping the beat of drums and the wail of bagpipes.

The bagpipe bands are the highlight of the day, and no parade on Long Island can match Huntington's lineup. Pipe bands from all over the Island and New York City consider Huntington to be one of the finest parades around. Among the bands which make Huntington a regular stop on their parade calendars is Clann Eireann Irish Pipe Band, the Huntington parade's lead pipe band for decades. Brooklyn-based Clann Eireann is the oldest, continuous independent Pipe Band in the United States.

The Huntington Hibernians' "home band," the Northport Pipe and Drum Band, and many more will delight thousands of spectators on the parade route.

Ancient Order of Hibernians members are proud to have Supervisor Smyth leading the division as Grand Marshal. A longtime member of the A.O.H., Smyth is a veteran of the USMC Reserves, and in addition to his duties in government, is an attorney who concentrates in business and real estate law.

The parade steps off at 2 p.m. on Sunday, March 8, starting from the Huntington LIRR train station and proceeding north along New York Avenue (Route 110) before turning west onto Main Street (Route 25A) to the reviewing stand just east of St. Patrick's Church.

The parade is organized and presented by the Huntington A.O.H. whose members solicit donations from local businesses to pay costs. These sponsors are the advertisers in this St. Patrick's Day Parade Journal. When you support their businesses, you do your part to support the parade.

Congratulations, Supervisor Smyth
